(c) if so, its impact on the working of ITDC elite hotels, when the ITC group is its competitor in hotel business in some of the Principal cities in the counrty and the long-term advantage which the ITC Hotels will derive from this acquisition of "ITDC share-holdings?

THE MINISTER OF CIVIL AVIATION AND TOURISM (SHRI GHULAM NABI AZAD): (a) A total number of ten parties have submitted their bids for marketing and management tie-up for six ELITE hotels of ITDC. Since, the bids have not yet been finalised, it would not be in the business interest of ITDC to disclose the particulars of the bids.

(b) Govt. is not aware as to whether any of the successful bidders belong to the ITC group.

(c) The Govt. would still be holding 90 per cent of the shares of ITDC and thus would have full management control. In view of reply to part (b) above, the question of ITC Hotels deriving any advantage does not arise.
